This book studies the current paradox within the voting literature on campaign contributions and legislative voting behavior. Specifically, while journalists and observers believe that the contributions significantly influence congressional votes, empirical evidence compiled by political scientists has generally failed to identify a systematic linkage between the two. At the same time, the amount of money contributed by interest groups is increasing and polls indicate that the public is becoming more cynical about the process.

Science and Industry, 700 State Drive, Los Angeles, California Testimony concerning SB 276, "ABC initially proposed this bill to amend K.S.A. 41-2610 making it illegal for a licensee under the Club and Drinking Establishment Act to employ, whether knowingly or unknowingly, persons who have certain criminal convictions. In the past, ABC has, as a courtesy, conducted criminal history checks on employees of licensees. ... Due to dwindling resources, ABC can no longer perform background checks on the employees registered with us. ... However, given the current disqualifying factors in the law, someone must be held accountable for ensuring the people hired by the licensee are qualified to work in the liquor industry. The original intent of this bill was to place that burden clearly on the licensee. ... The Senate's solution to this dilemma is the amended SB 276 you have before you which removes the felony and intoxicating liquor law convictions from K.S.A. 41-2610. Under this bill, the only restriction on employment at a club or drinking establishment is age. ABC believes that the qualification for employment at a licensed premises is a policy decision that is the legislature's to direct, and that it is the responsibility of ABC to enforce those legislative decisions." Senate Journal Alaska State Legislature Final Report of the Committee to Study Powdered Or Crystalline Alcohol SB 99, Chapter 276, Laws of 2015 House Journal Testimony in support of SB 276. "ABC supports the passage of SB 276. K.S.A. 41-2610 makes it illegal for a licensee under the Club and Drinking Establishment Act to knowingly employ or continue in employment, persons who have certain criminal convictions. The Liquor Control Act, specifically K.S.A. 41-713 also prohibits licensees from employing people with felony convictions, yet contains no scienter requirement. It is illegal for a retailer to employ a convicted felon, period, whether knowingly or unknowingly. There is no compelling reason for the different standard between different tiers of the liquor industry. In the past, ABC has, as a courtesy, conducted criminal history checks on employees of licensees. ... Due to dwindling resources, ABC can no longer perform background checks on the employees registered with us. ... The burden to ensure employees are qualified to work lies squarely on the licensees. However, the current requirement that the employment of disqualified persons must be knowingly done to be illegal creates an incentive for the licensees to avoid checking the qualifications of their employees." Friday, April 10, 1981, Los Angeles, California Interim Report The first book on Nike's iconic DUNK SB, a mid-rise basketball court staple that has in the last two decades become a colorful (and often irreverent) icon of skate and street wear. Created in 2002, the Nike Dunk was adopted from the court by skateboarders and sneakerheads to become an icon of the streets. An early catalyst to evolving sneaker culture as we know it today, the Nike Dunk has enjoyed a storied legacy of reinvention through numerous iterations and creative collaborations proving to be an integral part of a culture obsessed with sneakers. To celebrate this legacy, Nike SB: The Dunk Book is the first book to present the historical archive of one of the most important shoes ever created. Worn by an ever-growing list of elite riders at competitions all over the world, Nike Dunks are prized as much for their funky, one-of-a-kind designs as well as their high performance. Nike SB: The Dunk Book is filled with stunning images that tell the visual story of Nike SB's most iconic styles. Including Danny Supas, Staple Pigeon Dunks, De La Soul Highs, Paris Dunks, U.N.K.L.Es, and Supreme Dunk SBs, this volume flaunts the signature colorways and craftsmanship that Nike SBs are known for. Through enlightening anecdotes by the likes of Futura and Paul Rodriguez, readers get intimate accounts of how their favorite sneakers came to be. Also featured are archival images of Nike SB's most recognizable skaters rocking the iconic sneakers, including Eric Koston, Richard Mulder, Grant Taylor, Omar Salazar, Reese Forbes, Brian Anderson, Theotis Beasley, and Daniel Shimizu.
